

CELEBRATING EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY HERITAGE DAY
18 November 2015

LABORE ET CONSTANCIA

A new catalogue “Plantin books of Vilnius University Library” will be presented to the public at the historical P. Smuglevičius Hall of Vilnius University. The books of Christophe Plantin Publishing House in Netherlands are famous for their high quality of poligraphy, admirable typography and diligent texts. The exhibition will present the collection of Plantin books – one of the richest collections of Vilnius University Library.

On this occasion the smart lightening solutions developed by the Institute of Applied Research will be deployed to present effectively the objects of heritage to the visitors.

November 18

Opening – 17.00

Vilnius University Library (P. Smuglevičius Hall)

The book of the famous poet, professor and graduate of Vilnius University Casimirus Sarbievius – named “the Horace of Sarmatia”, printed in 1632.